lady

Ma

and

Mic

Me

Thi

TEID

core

Office of Publication, Second St. Between Houston and Throckmorton. Entered at the Fort Worth Postoffice as Second-Class Mali Matter.

BATES OF SUBSCRIPTION.

TO MAIL SUBSCRIBERS:
costage Prepaid by the Publishers Weckly.
r. 910 06 One Year
ths. 5 00 85x Months
onths. 2 50 Three Months. Per Week.

Bates of Advertising Furnished on Appli-eriting to THE GAZETTE on bur o themselves will please inclose stam, letters relating to business of any kind should dressed to THE GAZETTE. Fort Worth, Tex. GAZETTE PRINTING COMPANY.

PRIDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 11.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Democrat Publishing company will of the Daily and Weekly GAZETTE and will hereafter publish a daily and weekly newspaper under the name of Democrat-Gazette.

The Democrat Publishing company is authorized to collect all bills due Tax GAZETTE for advertising or subscription.

THE GAZETTE Printing company will enough to suit sensible men. pay all debts and liabilities due by said company.

DEMOCRAT PUBLISHING COMPANY, By K. M. VANZANDT.

GAZETTE PRINTING COMPANY, By Gro. B. Loving, Manager. FORT WORTH, Tex., Sept. 10, 1885.

that of the company I represent, with this issue of THE GAZETTE my connection with it ceases.

For the second time in the history of quiet. the paper, I deliver up the keys. Every newspaper man knows the strong fascination that binds men to the profession of journalism, and I confess that in the passage of time I became more and more attached to Tim GAZETTE, its very teibulations adding to the tie, even as Fort Worth cannot be exceled. the wayward child is the most fondly cherished.

I rejoice, however, that Fort Worth will, by this act, be once more united in interest and aims. I have sincerely deplored the unhappy condition of affairs of late, but self-preservation forced me into an apparently antagonistic position. I appeal, however, to the columns of Tor GAZETTE, whose testimony caunot be impeached, to witness that by no word have I sought to aggravate rancor, but have indeed striven to restore peace and good-

I would be ungrateful did I not ac knowledge with all my heart the overwhelming kindness of my brethren of the Press. The spontanelty with which per-bottomed with tin. nearly every paper in the state came to my defense under attack, gave brave words of encouragement during my conaffects me most deeply.

To the great-hearted, generous people of Fort Worth and the vast region over away in the severance of the tie that has so long bound as in community of thought and purpose.

THE GAZETTE has been their friend and their counsellor; always with sincerity, desolation in their paths. The town of at all times, I hope, with wisdom; and Washington was completely wrecked. they in turn have rendered most efficient aid by suggestion and support.

I desire, before penning the last words that will, perhaps, ever pass between us, to publicly express my obligations to the seems to be outside their pathway, and present staff of Tim Gazette-in ed- we have escaped injury from them for itorial, reportorial, mechanical and business departments-for the loyalty, selfsacrificing industry, never-flagging seal and ever-ready ability with which they have aided me and placed the Fort Worth GAZETTE in the front ranks of journalism.

Bespeaking for the new proprietors the and bid you farewell.

GEORGE B. LOVING.

AU REVOIR!

THE journalistic Stamese twins conjuncted by a hyphen.

THE spirit of harmony prevails in Fort Worth and Tun GAZUTTE still lives.

MISS ADA SWEET, the offensive partisan pension agent in Chicago, has had to walk the plank. We can't believe that Miss Sweet was more obnoxious than DeGress and other "partisans" that we wot of here in Texas.

congratulated upon the termination of the newspaper rivalry.

body goes. Ta, ta! soffypencumersa" is a coinage of the Houston Post. Will the learned editor please illustrate by diagram?

NOTHING Is un-Democratic. We speak whereof we know. Everything and every-

MARY ANDERSON has captured the erities with her "Rosalind." Her kneebreeches are said to be the fluest ever men upon the stage.

THE Laredo Times intimates that Bar ney Gibbs knows on which side his bread is buttered, seeing that he is on both sides. The Times has been reading Barney's letter on prohibition.

malyze the unsolicited words of cheer.

have purchased the business and good city on last Monday evening. At one time wrote it. If the agent will interview any

WE talk about the Connecticut "bluelaws" as relies of barbarism, but what could be more barbarous than a present one year from the time of signing a con- and clearness: tract to teach?

Having disposed of my interest and dricks' speech at Indianapolis on Tuesday night in which he sided with Parnell in the latter's issue with England. They think that owing to his position he should

> The great metropolis of Texas is rapidly coming to the front with her genius. Almost every week some citizen of our growing city applies at the patent office at Washington for a patent upon an invention that would reflect credit upon an Edison or Morse. As a city of inventions

> GREAT interest prevails throughout the French republic over the the coming elections, which occur on the 4th of October The 4th of October falls on Sunday, as all important elections in France are held on that day. What would be said in this country of the desecration of the Lord's day by election excitements and the carousals that alway follow at night?

SECRETARY OF THE NAVY WHITNEY IS going to build a Queen Anne cottage upon a new farm he has just bought. It is said that it will measure fifty feet in the beam and seventy-five feet from stem to stern. It will have three decks, the saloons being handsomely fitted by a Parisian house. She will be rigged fore and aft in clipper style, a vane tipping the sky-scraper, and the top will be cop-

Republican committee, who sent the begging letters to the department clerks at lation. test and lavished upon me praise far Washington says he has no fears of a beyond my meed, has been marvelous and "Democratic" prison in case of prosecu-Probably Mr. Cooper is right. That law pecially for the protection of Republicans. whose prosperous settlements Tife Ga- Such eminent examples as Roach, Chand-ZETTE has extended its friendships I bid ler, Belknap, Howgate and others concluno fear of prisons, either Democratic or Republican.

> Onto is the latest victim of one of those destructive windstorms that sweep over the West and North, leaving death and Coming so soon after the equally, disastrous eyelone that destroyed a portion of Charleston, S. C., we gain an idea of how frequent and widely diffused these phenomena are. Fortunately for us, Texas

> > RATHER POOR LAW.

A morning contemporary informs the public that "If the Prohibitionists can have a vote in the county it may be orsame good will and patronage so liberally dered inside of thirty days, but our best extended me, I lay down the editorial pen lawyers say the Prohibitionists cannot under the law have another election in Fort Worth under one year; that it is settied here for that length of time and if they attempt to have a county election an injunction will be asked for and carried to the highest court, if necessary." THE GAZETTE does not know who these "best lawyers" may be, but thinks that article 3238 of the Revised Statutes is remarkably explicit on this point, and is opposed to the opinion given above. The law is as follows:

'Act. 30-8. The failure to carry prohibition in a county shall not prevent such election being immediately thereafter held in a justice's precinci, town or city of said county; nor shall the failure to carry prohibition in a town or city prevent an election being immediately there-

The people of Fort Worth are to be after beld in the same justice's presinct; nor shall the holding of such election in any way prevent the holding of an election for the encounty immediately thereafter.

The recent election in Fort Worth was held in a justice's precinct, and the last Poclause of the preceding article says that the holding of such election shall not in the Prohibitionists are alone with their this week. It is raining now. any way "prevent the holding of an elec- dead. Fort Worth will now turn her tion for the entire county immediately attention to building railroads and otherthereafter"-provided the necessary pe- wise improving the opportunities that lie tition with fifty signatures can be had.

Thus the law declares. But we do not Thus the law declares. But we do not think there will be any further effort made to force prohibition on Fort Worth. The Knights of Labor now have four lodges in the city in active operation and another one will be organized in a few days. Let the city officials beware.—(Houston Herald. to force prohibition on Fort Worth. The Prohibitionists have got sense enough to keep away from the hind end of a mule means by the latter sentence of the above? when they have once been kicked.

MRS. MULLIGAN.

appointment of Mrs. Colonel Mulligan as the Masons, Odd Fellows or Knights of pension agent at Chicago, mentions her as Pythias? Ir was "optional" with the people of the "widow of Colonel Thomas A. Mulli-Fort Worth to reject or to accept the gan, organizer and colonel of the famous parental advice offered by our suburban Mulligan brigade, whose gallant service village, Dallas, and how well did they in the Southern cause during the early days of the late war is familiar to every reader of the history of that struggle." MR. JOSEPH A. QUINTERRO, for many Such ignorance and falsification of facts heaviest voting precinct in your district rears connected with the editorial staff of are enough to make the gallant colonel rise ie edited the Ranchero, a Democratic Confederate soldier who was in "Pap" paper of great influence in San Antonio. Price's command at the siege of Lexing- what you think about it? ton, which Mulligan so gallantly defended, THE anti-monopolists are bound to he will soon be convinced of the fact that have a party of their own in New York. he, at least, is not familiar with the "his-There is not much objection to this, see- tory of that struggle." Colonel Mulligan ing that it will cost very little and amount was a federal officer who lost his life in to less, but for all practical purposes the the service of his country, and it is in Democratic party is anti-monopolist recognition of this that his widow has been given the appointment referred to.

> 18 THIS A PERSONAL GOVERN-MENT?

We find the following queer course of law of Connecticut requiring that female reasoning in the Cieburne Telegram, school teachers shall remain single for which usually is noted for its accuracy

Local option is now made a party issue. The views of the next candidate for governor on ENGLISH politicians express their sur- this issue, are therefore of importance. If a prise at the tone of Vice-President Hen straight Democrat is opposed to local option he must veto any attempted amendment improving the present local-option law. The next state convention cannot be silent on this question.

THE GAZETTE is not ready to concede have taken some other stand or kept that local option is made a party issue, new management is even better than ever. but passing that by let us examine the proposition that "if a straight Democrat is opposed to local option, he must veto any attempted amendment improving the present local-option law."

Must a governor veto and thus kill any bill that does not agree with his personal views? If so, we must have an inquisition to ascertain the opinions of aspirants whose names are presented to the state convention for nomination to that office, and see to it that no man is nominated who entertains heretical ideas. He must not be a member of any denominational church, for as such he will have to veto any bill that does not agree with his theological dogma._ It would not do to elect a Catholic, for he must withhold his assent from any bill establishing and and the people of the fort can ill improving public schools. He must not be a physician, because he will be an allo path or a homocopath, and whichever he is he will have to veto any bill for the benefit of the other school. Indeed, it changes Tuesday looking as fresh and would be hard to find a man competent vigorous as ever. for the office who does not entertain posis. Fort could not afford to let THE GAZETTE tive views on most subjects, and he must daily papers in the state.—Sabine Pass forbid by his veto any law that does not Time accord with his individual opinion. It is The Fort Worth GAZETTE comes to us just as sensible to say all this, as that a all right again, and brighter than ever .governor, if he is opposed to prohibition, [Tyler Democrat and Reporter. must engraft his personal views upon the CHARRMAN COOPER of the Pennsylvania political policy of his administration by vived under a new organization, with ers from the tornado at Washington cooperation of the Pennsylvania political policy of his administration by vived under a new organization, with ers from the tornado at Washington cooperation of the Pennsylvania political policy of his administration by vived under a new organization, with ers from the tornado at Washington cooperation of the Pennsylvania political policy of his administration by vived under a new organization. The Garage of the Pennsylvania political policy of his administration by vived under a new organization.

The constitution allows a governor to use his veto to prevent ill-advised legislation for violation of the civil-service law. tion, but it is tacitly required of him that is as bright and newsy as ever. Its manwhen he withholds his official sanction seems to have been framed and passed es. from any bill presented to him, his action is dictated by a positive knowledge that there is something in the proposed law ble with the pe that will act disastrously to the State, or adieu with a gratitude that will not pass sively show that Republicans need have that it is unconstitutional. Unless he can show conclusively that legislation is unsuspended a few days ago, has resumed constitutional or unstatesmanlike, it publication again. Glad to note the fact. would be an act of inexcusable egotism to use his veto against the collected representative wisdom of the state, merely on the ground that he was personally opposed to such legislation. We are not yet prepared to have our chief magistrate imitate the French autocrat and pro- Correspondence of the Gazette. claim: "I am the State! "

Depend upon it, no governor will do so began coming in in earnest, and is comfoolish a thing. He may, if he is not a manding full prices. The new cotton ing the dominant opinion of his party.

> A Decided Bargain. Detroit Free Press

"I can't eat that ice cream," he said as he shoved back from the table with a disgusted expression on his face. "Anything wrong?" queried the propri-etor of the parior as he rubbed his hands and looked anxious.

"It's beastly stuff." "Dear me, but I'm sorry, Susan, what flavor did this gentleman order."

'And you gave it to him?"
'Yes, sir." "Ah! that explains. I'm out of vanilla, and she must have used kerosine. I'll make it at half-price to you, sir, and you get all the advantage of a sure cure for sore throat.'

Curarette smokers preter Opera Puffs because they do not stick to the lips.

Try Walters' meat and you will use no

TEXAS TOPICS.

Comments and Opinions of the State Press. According to THE GAZETTE "the fate of personal freedom will be decided in Tarrant county to day," It's election day," Houston

Election day has come and passed and

Will the Herald please explain what It If there were forty lodges about to be organized what have the city officials to The Associated Press, referring to the Labor singled out in contradistinction to

The talented editor of the waste basket of the salveston. News has retired again, and the robilation war is coming to the front. Well-orn should get in his blow now. Many desire a know where he stands, now that McLannan ounty went against water.—(San Antonio Ex-

Yes, Olin, now's your chance. The has declared its will at the polls, and it is than the New Orleans Picayune, died in that from his grave and haunt the man that perfectly safe for you to express your crop opinion now. At the same time, THE GA-ZETTE would quietly remark: Who cares

Those would be statesmen who straidled the ence on the prohibition question are sick since they have heard the news from Hill and McLennan counties. Such demago gues shouldbe shelved for all time.— Dallas Democrat.

How do they feel since they have heard from Fort Worth? Let them stay on the fence. The voters don't care what hecomes of them. Like problidtion, they are dead and buried.

THE GAZETTE'S BOUQUET.

Presented by Its Confreres of the State Press.

The Fort Worth GAZETTE is again to the front, bright and newsy as ever. The Caller wishes it abundant prosperity.-Corpus Christi Caller. The Sentinel greets with pleasure the reappearance of the Fort Worth GAZETTE. We congratulate the management on the ettlement of their financial difficulties. Fort Worth cannot get along without its great morning daily.—[Břady Sentinel.

The Fort Worth GAZETTE, under the Houston Heraid.

The Fort Worth GAZETTE made its appearance after a few days suspension. The same neat appearance that has here-tofore marked it as among the best, is still the prominent feature of the paper. We trust that its troubles are now things of the past .- [Milam County Democrat

George B. Loving is being treated badly at the Fort; but he generally runs with the conqueror, and may be relied on to keep his end up .- Laredo Times. The Fort Worth GAZETTE came out again last Sunday with flying colors. Its financial troubles have been adjusted, and its management says THE GAZETTE WILL be troubled no more with that newspaper malady called "financial embarrassment." We are indeed glad that THE GAZETTE is again on its feet, for we consider it fully equal if not ahead of the Herald, to do without THE GAZETTE .- (Whites-We felt as glad as a boy in his first pair boots when the Fort Worth Daily GAZETTE reappeared among our ex-We were satisfied the ZETTE Is a beauty, and we wish it big success .- Tyler Courler. The Fort Worth GAZETTE again made ager has our best wishes for its future prosperity, and the words "never fail" shall ever be at its mast-head. The Ga-ZETTE is a good paper and is Indispensaple of the whole state. - Springtown Pilot. The Fort Worth Daily GAZETTE, which Fort Smith (Ark.) Elevator.

The Fort Worth GAZETTE shines from afar. It is really a very fine paper .- [Houston Post.

McGREGOR.

McGregor, Tex., Sept. 9 .- Cotton has

Prohibitionist, endeavor to prevent the rates issued by the Texas Traffic associapassage of laws encouraging prohibition, tion gives us 25 cents per bale the adbut he will not defeat such laws by veto- vantage of Waco in shipments destined to several years. Nature has been very jug them. Their enactment by the legis- Galveston, Houston and New Orleans, lature would be very good evidence of the and our merchants and buyers are taking she has not dealt us out our portion of existence of a state sentiment that ap- advantage of it. Fifty-seven bales of new proves of them, and no governor will cotton have been shipped since Septemperil his political standing by antagoniz- ber i, against nine bales during the same period last year, and we have about 125 bales in our warehouses for shipment.

Calvert Bros, have erected a new cotton gin, with a capacity of twenty bales a This is the third cotton gin within city limits.

Miss Tinie Feries of Richmond and Miss Carrie Hunt of Temple are making Mc-Gregor a brief visit. Their old friends are glad to see the young ladies looking so bright and beautiful.

Miss Alice J. Harrison, one of McGregor's lovellest and most estimable roung ladies, died at her mother's residence in this city last night. Miss Alice had formed a large circle of warm friends and was a leading spirit in our Sunday-school. She had been organist in the Cumberland Presbyterian church for many mouths and her dear face will be sadly missed by the little ones.

Rev. W. L. Jones has concluded his series of meetings at the Christian church. with 55 accessions to the faith. Bro Jones is a second "Sam," and speaks the plain and simple truth.

All arrangements have been consumated for public school to open on October 5. We have an able corps of instructors and nothing stands between our school and success.

A camp-meeting is progressing under the auspices of the Baptist brethren. A large attendance and much good is antic-

we have been visited by rains during

LIVINGSTON.

Correspondence of the Gazette. LIVINGSTON, Sept. 8 .- Livingston acad, emy opened yesterday with Prof. D. C. Peacock principal and A. B. Magee assistant. Both are very fine instructors and it is confidently expected that they will build us up a first-class school.

Rev. J. P. Rogers of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, who is supplydo about it, and why are the Knights of ling the church at this place and Moscow, assisted by Rev. Mr. Seliers, P. E., and Rev. Mr. Ridley of Hempstead, Rev. Mr. Ridley of Hempstead, will begin a series of meetings at this place to-night and will continue so long as the interest justifies it.
Our county judge, T. T. Crosson, has gone to Throckmorton and Baylor coun-ties, pursuant to order of the court, to protect the interests of the county in the matter of leasing and securing tents due the county for occupancy of her school crops of Polk are better have had for years-no corn, cotton has falled, and ribbon cane, oats and wheat are A 1. Only small lots of these latter were planted. Our merchauts anticipate a large business and heavy shipment of cotton this season and are laying in heavy stocks. The tax rolls of our county being completed, the court will convene this week for their approval. The health of our town and vicinity is much improved. Light rains in the jast few days have cooled the atmosphere considerably

GATESVILLE.

A Negro Murdered by Another--- The Murderer Jailed.

special to the Gazette.

GATESVILLE, TEX., Sept. 10. - Bob Hasty, colored, was murdered here last night. He was sitting near a window and some one slipped up and shot him. He fell dead. The officers were at once summoned, and with Cole and John Boyd succeeded in tracing the murderer to the residence of Sam Kimmons, another darkey, where they arrested Martin Coates, and lodged him in jail. The murderer was barefooted, and when Coates foot was placed in the track it exactly fit it. Kimmons stoutly denied that there was a pistol on the premises, but one was found recently shot, under floor. It was an old-fashioned cap and ball navy six-shooter.

City Attorney White had the ball extracted from Hosty's body and it was a navy-six. Mayor Fellrath summoned a jury of inquest, which has not rendered a verdlet, but will decide that Hosty came to his death by a pistol shot fired from the hands of Martin Coates.

It is thought Sam Kimmons is an access sory to the murder, and he has been jailed. The cause of the murder seems to be that Coates had seduced Hosty's step-daughter, and had been forbidden on the premises, and on that account Coate murdered him. The negroes are greatly Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and post tively cures piles or no pay required is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by H. W. Williams &

Relief at Hand.

CINCINNATI, OHIO, Sept. 10 .- The chamber of commerce has appointed a committee, of which J. H. Stewart, general manager of the Cincinnati, Washington & Baltimore railroad, is treasurer, to & Ohio express, the Midland & Little Miami roads offer to carry all donations free of charge.

From the Nation.

LEAVENWORTH, KAN., Sept. 10 .- Gen Miles has returned from an extended trip through the Indian Territory. He states the cattle of the Arapahoe & Cheyenne Cattle company and others will all be out of the Territory within thirty days from date. The general states he has stationed officers at each post with a sufficient command to protect the cattlemen. The officers will also see to the sorting out of any cattle belonging to the In-dians which may have been absorbed by herds. This prevents any possibility of any conflict between the Indians and the cattlemen.

Gen. Miles says: "We have had a great deal to contend with, for there had unusually heavy rains in the Territory and the few bridges across the streams had been washed away and the water has been so high that we were compelled to reactable tonics, quickly and completely ures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Wenkerss, impure Blood, Malaria, Chills and Favers, a.d. Neuralgin.

At is an unfailing remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.
It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar

At is an unfailing remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver.
It is invaluable for Diseases peculiar as women, and all was lead sedentary lives. It does not injure the teath, cause headache or reduce constitution—other from systems de. It carriches and parifies the blood, stimulates he appetite, aids the assimilation of fixed, referred Heartburn and Belching, and strengtheas the muscles and nerves.

For Intermittent Fevers, Lassithde, Lack of theiry, oc., it has no equal.

The genuine has above trade mark and reased red lines on wrapper. Take no other cased red lines on wrapper. Take no other seased red lines on wrapper.

note suit by REGWS CHRESCAL CO., BALTINGEL BE

WANTED-PERSON PENERAL SERVANT

WANTED MALE I ANTED PIRST CLASS TERS—At Palestos (V Texas, John F. Erma

CHEAD COL

WANTED MISCELLAN ANTED-ATOSCEman and wife to work, call at once

ROOMS FOR BENT FOR RENT - Nicely to

PLEASANT FURNISHED-IN large front room on first flow of Fourth and Grove streets. FOR RENT-Nicely furnished

PLEASANT furnished rooms

ELEGANT furnished rooms: Without board. Just not tery. Rosedale street car-block of the house. Mrs. M. L.

FOR SALE-MISCELLO I HAVE for sale a property which is paying 20 per real ment. Any party wishing to be call on me at 1612 Main street

MISCELLANEORS HAVING bought the stock, use Fort Worth Plumbing Ca. 14 pose of same at once at rack base good opening for the right man. 5

WARREN INSTITUTE FOR ladies will open on Montar and First street. ARTESIAN BATH HOUSE, water, eighty gallons ser ar rainwater—white shiplar mag-the best bathing water in the soi used as at Hot Springs, dran to ing. Single tickets, 25 ccm, is Stanley & Markle, proprietors, as public sonare.

onblic square TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERS A haulers have met together in association. One of their principal they will not furnish water to a water pays back dues, any one at tion will furnish it to him.

OST-A small white, curir dos one leaving same at Europ liberally rewarded.

LAW CARDS. remperson Fort & ro DAVIS, BEALL & ROGERS, in Counselors at Law. Over her tional bank, Main street, Fort West

BOYKIN & FINCH, (R. J. Be Finch), Attorneys at Law, M. over Twombiy & Son. Will prace State and Federal courts Fra-given to collections.

The Bar Elsewhere

HINDE & QUICKENSTEDT of Fred Quickensted count is torneys at law, land and live as Collections and correspondence as Rio, Val Verde county, Tex. HOWE Y. PEYTON, afformer of the strict affer ness in any of the courts of thesis

C. A. BRAND, attorner and adjustment and collection of chim commercial business. PROFESSIONAL.

Dit. E. McDANIEL, deptist traction of teeth by the us Artificial teeth a specially. Of street, over Powell's drug slore. DR. W. W. ROUTH, home pand residence Third stort opposite the opera-house. Oder a. m.; 2:30 to 4 p. m.; saudis telephone, No. 200.

LAND AGENTS. I. K. TARVER, attorney it is given to commercial and land land EDUCATIONAL

7 PENMANS

LARGEST BEST AND C Three of the best peamen the faculty. Short-hand as one fourth the time required Send for College Journal, F.1

THORP SPRING, HOOD Second Monday in S And Continues Nine Call

We have a moral refined to We have a moral refined to We have a moral refined to We have a moral refined to of St. Mary will open sa ladies on Throckmorn olic church. For p M. Guyat, 1996 Throcket

THE COLL Weatherfor

Conducted by Europ